*All three of us were artists. We weren't obsessed with money or ambition. We were driven by our passions, imagination, creativity and the desire to

NON FINAL VISUAL

PHILOSYKOS

The memory of a Greek summer at Mount Pelion inspired this scent.

To get to the sea, there was a natural grove of wild fig trees to cross through.

The sun at its zenith heated the earth, the dry wind carried the scent of the trees and their fruit. Philosykos is an ode to the entire fig tree: the green freshness of the leaves, the density of the white wood, the milky flavor of the figs.
